

the Executive Board that will ultimately make certain that the money is there to satisfy the contract out of the $300,000 that's available. So let me think here. Senator Labedz, you are the Chairperson of the Executive Board, is there any reason for us to believe that we will have any difficulty satisfying the contract?

PRESIDENT: Senator Labedz, please.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Johnson, I would say, as Chairman of the Exec Board, I, myself, don't see any difficulty. But I don't speak for all the members, of course.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Senator Chambers, you're back there running for Attorney General, you're on the Executive Board, do you see any reason to believe that we won't be able to satisfy the contract?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You're talking to one.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: To one what?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: One reason why it's not going to be satisfied because we have disregarded what the study is going to come up with anyway, so we are throwing good money after bad. So I would oppose the Executive Board assuming that responsibility.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If the Legislature did it, it's different. But as a board member, I wouldn't assume that responsibility.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: You would put me in the position of having to explain how we breached the contract?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, that goes with the territory. You made it, and, as Senator Scott Moore said, you sleep in it.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: What a lousy response. Senator Schmit, you have always been a law-abiding member of this Legislature, you're on the Executive Board, are you going to satisfy this contract?

SENATOR SCHMIT: You know, judging from the response of that remark around here, you would think that some of these people around here had a little respect for the law and that's probably
